Mission Statement

Sharing Things that Make for Peace.

About Brethren Community Ministries

Brethren Community Ministries (bcmPEACE on the web & social media) shares things that make for peace (shalom) in all areas of life including the spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual, business, and social areas. We focus on the South Allison Hill Neighborhood of Harrisburg while impacting the greater Harrisburg region. Our innovative, high-impact initiatives include such programs as Agape-Satyagraha Training, a leadership training program for youth teaching skills for conflict resolution and social change.

WALK FOR A HEALTHY COMMUNITY

Use this guide to help you give a donation or sign up as a walker and get sponsors. This is a screen shot of the web page you will see after you select our organization in the list for Harrisburg.

1. Click on this button to donate to our organization for the walk. If you plan to raise money from others, this is not the best option.
2. To sponsor a walker, use the search for a participant in the gray box.
3. To sponsor a team, you may search for the team, then choose a specific walker to sponsor.
4. You may sign up as a walker and form a new team.
5. You may sign up as a walker and join an existing team.
6. You may also sign up as an individual walker and not join a team.
